...I am my first house, man is his first house ... if we speak of the third paradise, the earth is my third skin, the ecological house cuts delicately into the skin of the planet. Let me give you a practical example: I remove the grassy mantle and use it for the covering, cut the trees I need for the load-bearing structure and the roof, I consider that one day, when this house will no longer be used, it will be reabsorbed into the cycles of nature, this is the natural house. The more I succeed in imagining the injury caused to Mother Earth, the better I am able to conceive the ecological house...
